WORLD MISSIONS

The one who hears you hears me, and the one who rejects you rejects me, and the one who rejects me rejects him who sent me.—Luke 10:16

NATALIE HUGHES

FPCC member, Natalie Hughes, shares Christ with the people of Shepherd's Bush, London—seeking to engage in cross-cultural gospel ministry largely through church planting, leading worship, developing relationships with both believers and non-believers, and sharing the good news through various methods of evangelism. Natalie returns home this week to be married to Londoner, Paul Gooday, on May 19. Natalie and Paul plan to reside in London where Natalie will continue her service as Music Director at New City IPC. Please pray the Lord's richest blessings on this wonderful couple as they prepare for their lives together.

Your prayers are greatly appreciated as our summer teams prepare for their ministries, cultural adaptation, and travel. Please pray especially for good team camaraderie and learning attitudes so that the Lord is glorified and people are edified and blessed.

COMMISSIONING OF SUMMER TEAMS

Our summer teams will be commissioned on Sunday, June 10, during both 10:50am services. If you are serving in an overseas ministry this summer and would like to be commissioned by our church, please contact the World Missions Office.

MUSIC MINISTRY

Sunday morning, May 13 (Mother's Day)

Thank you, Men's Choir, for leading us in worship today along with guest soloist K.C. Armstrong. K.C. is also singing three selections in an extended prelude at 10:45am in the sanctuary, accompanied by Justin Bumgardner on the piano.

K.C. Armstrong has sung on national and international concert stages as a member of The United States Army Chorus and former member of The United States Air Force Singing Sergeants. As a member of these ensembles, he has had the opportunity to sing for the last four presidents and for the funerals of Presidents Reagan and Ford. Originally from Mt. Holly, North Carolina, Mr. Armstrong [and family] currently resides in Winchester, VA.*

JUNE HANKS HONORED

Dr. June Hanks (member of FPC), Associate Professor in Physical Therapy, is one of two recipients of the 2018 Harold Love Outstanding Community Service Award for Faculty/Staff. Named after the late state Rep. Harold Love, Sr, the Love Award is a huge honor that recognizes dedicated efforts by administrators, faculty and students in Tennessee higher education, including volunteer work, community organization, public service, charitable service and leadership. Dr. Hanks is among five recipients across the United States (along with Dr. Richard Brown, Executive Vice Chancellor for Finance and Administration at UTC) for the award this year.

IT'S A WONDERFUL LIFE!

IS IT WHITWELL OR WUHWIL?

The It's a Wonderful Life! spring bus trip will be going to the beautiful Sequatchie Valley on Thursday, May 17, to enjoy the Buttonwillow Civil War Dinner Theatre. Earlier in Whitwell, we'll stop at the nationally publicized Holocaust Museum at Whitwell Middle School. $66 covers everything. We depart from Douglas Street at 9 a.m. The trip is open to any adult, not just seniors. Sign up with David Cooper and bring a friend. Call 779-7380.

STEPHEN MINISTRY UPDATE

After completing 50 hours of training over the spring and summer, our Stephen Minister trainees should graduate September 20. After graduation, with the help of our pastors and congregation, they will inaugurate the ministry at FPCC. The team is 18-strong – three Stephen Leaders and fifteen Stephen Ministers in training. Please pray for the team. The training is challenging, but the results should be worth the effort. Thanks for your support! (If you missed the application deadline for this year's class but are interested in participating in Stephen Ministry in the future, you can contact Leslie Cory at lesliecory@comcast.net.)

FLOWER MINISTRY

Flowers will be arranged & delivered today following the late worship service by the Rocking Chair Sunday School Class. All volunteers are welcome.
